

SAMANTHA PHUMAPHI

PLATINUM ASSOCIATE

Samantha Phumaphi is a Barrister (Advocate), mediator, arbitrator and facilitator with ten years of experience between the United Kingdom and South Africa legal systems. Demonstrated expertise in commercial, family, civil, employment and criminal matters. Focused on supporting clients with legal services, including dispute resolution, mediation and arbitration, as well as a certified facilitator related topical trainings. Presented in front of magistrates, crown, county, and immigration tribunals, family courts and has also made successful appeals to the High Court of Appeals (UK). Strong legal, commercial and civil knowledge in South Africa.

She has expertise in commercial, family, civil, employment and criminal matters and has provided training in various legal areas including commercial, employment, insurance and conflict resolution to numerous organisations both in South Africa and England.

In addition, Samantha is a member of the Court Aligned Mediation Panel for South Africa and was appointed to EXCO Board for the Association of Arbitrators, Southern Africa. She is the founder of Phumaphi Consultants.

Samantha also provides tuition to trainee mediators on behalf of the London School of Mediation and Conflict Dynamics.